A TORPID LIVER

Is the fruitful source of many diseases, prominent among which are DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, DYSENTERY, BILIOUS FEVER, AGUE and FEVER, JAUNDICE, PILES, REEUMATISM, KIDNEY COMPLAINT, COLIC, etc. Symptoms of a Torpid Liver.

Loss of Appetite and Hauses, the bowels are costive, but sometimes alternate with looseness, Pain in the Head, accompanied with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain in the right side and under the shoulder blade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of Temper, Low Spirits, Less of Memory, with a feeling of having neglected some duty. General Weariness, Dizziness. Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, lieadache generally over the right eye, Restlessness at night with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine. IF THESE WARN-ings are unheeded, serious diseases will soon be developed.

TUTT'S PILLS
Are especially adapted to such cases. A single dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

Are compounded from substances that are free from any properties that can injure the most delicate organization. They Search, Cleanse, Purify and Invigorate the Entire System. By relieving the engorged liver, they cleanes the blood from poisonous humors, and thus impart health and vitality to the body, causing the bowels to act naturally, without which no one can feel well.

Dr. Tutt-Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith.) I am now a well man, have a good appetite, di-gestion perfect, regular stools, pilos gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid desh. They are worth their waight in gold. Rev. R. D. Simpson, Louisville, Ky. TUTT'S PILLS.

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS:

Their first effect is to incresse the appetite, and cause the body to take on flash, thus the system is neurished and by their Tonic Action on the Digestive Organs. Regular stools are produced. DR. J. F. HAYWOGD, OF NEW YORK, SAYS:—

"Few diseases exist that cannot be relieved by the stools are the Liver to its nearest functions, and restoring the Liver to its normal functions, and for this purpose no remedy has ever been invented that has as happy an effect as TUTT'S

A Remarkable Story. The following remarkable story was written by a gentleman who professes to know what he is talking about. The style is something like that of one Joseph Mulhattan, alias Orange

Blossom: In Southeast Africa, stretching up from the shores of the Indian ceean to the lofty summits of the Snow mountains, bounded on the north by Mezambique, and on the south by the British colonies, is the land of the Zulus, contains ing many thousands of square miles, and a numerous, warike, negro population. Lying south of the tropic of Capricorr, its dusky in-nabitants, enervated by heat, are mentally and physically superior to those of the torrid zone. For many months the veterans of Britain, commanded by experienced generals, have been defeated in battle after battle while endeavoring to subdue this brave people. Braddock's awful repulse, one hundred and twenty four years ago, on the banks of the Monongahela, was not so disastrous as the destruction a few weeks since of an English army in Zululand, when only a single soldier escaped to tell the tale. Later comes the news of the tragio death, at the hands of the Zalus, of Napoleou IV., the Prince Imperial of France.

Little, however, thought the people of west ern Pennsylvatia, that King Cetewayo was bern and partly raised in their midst. Ceto-wayo, whose real name is Charles Manaway, was born of mulatto parents at Uniontown, Fa yette county, Pennsylvania, March 8, 1838, and consequently is new forty one years old. He is a full courin of John Manaway, the wealthy colored proprieter of the Spottsylvania House, Uniontown. In 1848, when Charles was ton years old, his parents removed to Philadelphia, where he was educated by a wealthy gentleman for a missionary to Liberia. But in 1853 the heretofore studious boy rau away, and sailed to England. Edisting in the British army, he served through the Crimean war, receiving an ugly flesh wound at the storming of Sebastop: 1. He is next heard of in the French army during the Italian trouble, and although a mere youth his letters from the seat of war to American newspapers attracted considerable attention. In 1859 he became a valet to a French noble man, and in 1864 went to England and joined a confederate privateer bound for Savannah, Georgia. His color enabled him to convey contraband articles through the lines without suspicior. When General John W. Geary army, and was commissioned first lieutenant of a negro company. In a skirmish just at the close of the war, he received a severe but not dangerous would in the thigh, and was taken to a Philadelphia hospital. After his discharge he visited Uniontown, but found few that knew or cared for him. Returning to London, England, he became the servant, then the private secretary of an English colonel bound for the Cape of Good Hope. Here, for two or three years, he spent all his spare time in the study of military subjects. Descring the colonel, he smuggled himself on board a Dutch merchapt vessel, the captain of which soon set him sshore at the mouth of the Tuleka river in Zululand. His native ability and acquired sprewdness made him at once the leader of the wild natives. In 1869 he had risen to the position of Graalg or chief, and in 1871 was made king. Possessing a thorough knowledge of British resources and arts of war, and leading an army of as brave warriers as over went to battle, he has proven limsed to be a king and a general who is equal, and it might be said superior, to the very ablest British commanders.

FRIGHTENED EXPLORES -A gentleman who has just arrived in Louisville, Ky., from the cave region gives the following account of the thrilling adventures of the teachers and scholars of the Glasgow, Ky., Presbyterian Church Sabbath Schoo', who visited the Grand Crystal Avenue cave, at Glasgow Junction, on last Friday. It is the custom of the teachers and scholars of the school to annually visit one of those great wonders of nature, the caves of Kentucky, and last Friday morning some sixty happy children. last Friday morning some sixty nappy children, ranging in age from five to lifteen, accompanied by their teachers and parents, entered the Grand Crystal Avenue cave and spont several hours exploring its great wonders. They reached the river, and Mr. T. R. Pucket's boat, the Cave Wonder, landed them safely on the opposite shore, and on they went, deeply interested in its applied health is enchanted beauties.

They had wardered some five miles in the cave when the terrible discovery was made that their lights were about to give out and would not last even until they should get back to the river. They retraced their steps immediately and did manage to reach the banks of the river, where they had to sit on its banks for four hours. before the bost put in an appearance. Fortunately Mr. Pucket had a packets of candles aboard, and the thoroughly frightened children. parents and teachers were all got safely out of the cave. Their auspense while waiting in darkness was terrible, as they did not know where the boat was and they dare not go in search of ir, as they might fall into horrible pits, For a fine nobby suit of CLOTHING sea S.
